Rules for Göta studentkår's committees

"Göta Studentkår's purpose is to safeguard, promote, and represent the interests of its members in educational and student social matters" (Göta Studentkår's bylaws § 1:2).

In order to safeguard and promote members' interests, Göta Studentkår may establish committees. Rules concerning committees are governed by this document.

Committees are groups appointed by the Union Board intended for the preparation and implementation of specific matters of interest.

Purpose

Committees generally operate as an extension of the Union Board and always work according to a specific purpose. It is therefore expected that the committee actively works toward this purpose in close dialogue with the Union Board.

Committees shall contribute to the development of Göta Studentkår's work by carrying out specific activities within a given area.

Operations

The rules of procedure for individual committees are established by the Union Board. The rules of procedure describe the committee's purpose, activities, and structure. Furthermore, the specific rules of procedure determine how the committee's meetings are to be conducted, the nomination process, as well as the authority of the committee and the respective roles within the committee.

Elections

In accordance with Göta Studentkår's bylaws § 5:11, members of each committee are elected by the Union Board during the constituting Union Board meeting. The Union Board may, if necessary, continue to appoint members to the committees during the operational year. The number of members in each committee is regulated by the rules of procedure.

Finance and Reporting

The budget for each committee is decided by the Union Board in connection with the approval of the overall budget for the entire organization. The creation of committee budgets shall take Göta Studentkår's other operations into account. Reporting of the committee's financial activities shall be conducted in accordance with Göta Studentkår's financial procedures.

Establishing a committee

To establish a committee, the following requirements must be met:

- › The committee conducts activities directed toward Göta Studentkår's members, and the activities are consistent with Göta Studentkår's purpose and values
- › The committee has a clear goal and purpose
- › The committee consists of ordinary members of Göta Studentkår
- › The committee shall have rules of procedure
